ELECTION-WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 7.

FROM OUR S. Y. CORRESPONDENT. New York, Wednesday, Dec. 24, 1851. On the Eve of Christmas, I cannot better be gin than by wishing to you and yours, and to all interested in you, and in whom you are interested-Merry Christmas. Here we have the snow on the ground, and bleak winter around-opening the heart to charity, as it feelingly admonished those who are in happier circumstances, and pre-paring the family festivals which belong to the time-of the number who have no family hearth -ind little or no means to warm such hearths, as they have. It is an eventful Christmas-and yet, how happy is our thrice happy land-blessed of Heaven, and yet hardly appreciated by its pos- think. pro-or-in comparison with other lands. France. as you will have heard, is in another of its pericheal revolutions—this time from liberty, or what | furnishing aid by private contributions, to the was fanta-tically called such, to absolute military rule. The array and another Napoleon-in name. in ambition—the future mest show whether in power and success-have overthrown the Constiution and the Assembly, and established the rule of the sweed-and the masses do not resist-indeed, sensely seem to complain. The country ton-the great interior, on which, in all lands, depend the real strength and scentity of a nationis content. Such is the general testimony of the private letters received by the Baltie-which ves-el did not leave England till eight days after the military assurpation in Paris. The army-the lusiness portion of the community-all men in trade—throughout the land, not less than in Paris -support Louis Napoleon-and the populous masses-without leaders-without any certain and positive aims-without any of the habits of organized freedom-acquiesce in what they cannot resist-and the scope and tendency of which they hardly comprehend. The Republic is dead --- for the present certainly dead--- and only again to be revised, when revived at all-after long agomes and seas of blood. Liberty mourns, and Despotism rejoices—the shadow of the Russian Czar towers menacing and vast out of the turbid scenes of the 2d in-t,-and his hand, and his gold, and his diplomacy, and his plighted supportthere can be little doubt-gave consistency and courage to the daring attempt of this meck Napoh ba's meck 18th Bramaire.

The decisive day for the blow was well selected-being at once the anniver-ary of the Imperial Coronation in 1804, and the Battle of Austerits in 1895-event, appealing to many memoties. The period of the day, and of the year too was well selected-winter, and before day light. Even the most zealous and best concerted struggles of resolute men for their rights, depend very much for success upon the accidents of weather and temperature. A heavy rain has more than once quelled an insurrection; and the most aident patriotism recoils before a thermometer below reezing point, and darkness. All these show that the plan was wi-ely framed for success-and, of course, success waited upon during and coun-

Poor Hungary, for whose well wrongs our hearts have been deeply and strangely wrought upon by her gifted son and exile, i to find her chains rivetted, I fear, by this disastrous eclipse of even such liberty as France possessed. If, as it seems too certain, Napoleon the creature and the pupper of the Czar, that Czar's forces of repression all over Europe, me meatly increased by the success of his creature. But we of the United States-what shall we say? Shall we be silent, as in some sense the guardian of Freedom-when we see the powers of Despotism combining to strike down this Freedom. wherever it rears its head in Europe ? If the old world is to be entirely Cossacked-is it a matter of indifference to us? or must we still trust in the broad Atlantic as our shield, and our own stout arms as our weapons against despotism? These are questions that are more easily asked than answered. They will suggest themselvesand they will be discussed-whether they will be resolved just now, may be more doubtful. The European horizon is any thing but encouraying for those who sympathize with the oppressed; be it our common task here, in the only real Republic of the Earth-so to fortify our own bends of Union, and so to foster and increase our common strength-and add power to our commo devetion to Human Rights and Human Freedom -that, if the contest be in any way forced upon us with Despotism and Oppression, we may enter upon it with a hand and a will, that shall prove y formidable, as well as how united, is a people of freemen. The telegraph just announces to us that the fire-proof building, or nearly so-for otherwise its lofty position, and the lack of an adequate supply of water, would seem to have rendered it always an unit depository for its Library and other archives. The loss of the Library will be the most serious loss-for in that part of it, if I mi-take not, bought from Mr. Jefferson, was the only series of historical papers and documents connected with the establishment and progress of the government up to the war of 1812, which the destruction of all the public archives at the capture of Washington, left unbarmed.

The loss of so expensive a structure—their venience which, for the time being, will result to Congress for want of adequate accommodations and the destruction of historical pictures and sculptures-will make this a memorable catastrophe. The details are yet wanting. You will doubtless have them by lightning before this lerter reaches you.

WATERBIA CO. SENATORIAL ELECTION.-To morrow is the day fixed by the Governor for the special election in Wankesha County for State enator. We have but space to urge upon our Whig friends the necessity of getting out their wing menus the necessity of getting out their voters, and of seeing that they are polled for their tional Convention, by the Districts, in place estimable candidate. Dr. West A light vote is of those selected at Madison. We copy its proestimable candidate. Dr. West A light vote is always taken at special elections, and there is therefore the more need for earnest exertions. The luck is on our side this season, and on friends ought to spare no honorable effort to deserve it. It only needs "a pull all together" on the part of the friends of good government entry Dr. West in triumphoutly,

The whig paper- seem quite anxious about the unreturned vote of Oconto county, and vocif-erously enquire, "What locofoce kept it back? Who suppressed it?" Now, as the return-neter reached Madison, the responsibility of the failure must rest with the whig officers of Oconto, or with some of President Fillmore's deputy post masters; to which sources we would direct the inquiries of the whig press,—Commercial

We are informed by Col. Jones, at whose Mills the poll for Oconto was held, that he was present at the election and himself carried the return of the Oconto votes to Green Bay and delivered it to the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors for Brown County, who is a democrat. What became of it afterwards we cannot learn. There were as other 59 for the straight whig ticket. The suppression or miscarriage of the Oconto vote did not. appily, affect the result; but it is worth while to ascertain how it occurred, in order to prevent a recurrence of the accident.

SHIP BUILDING.-During the year 1851, there were built, and partially completed, in N. Y. city, ; 18 clipper ships, 8 other ships, 22 ocean steamships, 26 other steamers, 4 brigs, and 29 schooners.— The total number is 106, with a tonnage of 60,000.

LAKE SHORE RAILROAD.—By an unrecountable prensight we have neglected hitherto to call attention to the opening of the books of the line of railroad extending along the lake shore, which was to take place vesterday at the U. S. Hotel.— We are disposed to mink, however, that the great and manifest necessity of the road will so far mmend it to the invor of our citizens, that their full quota of the stock will be taken up without delay. Certainly no arguments can be needed to atisfy them of the vast benefit which will be de ived by Milwaukee from each a railread.

LALE, Good Newsl-Just before going ess last night, we were informed by one of the Commissioners that the books were opened vesterday at the time and place designated, $250,000 in home tide sunscriptions made to the stock, the percentage paid in, and the Company organized Well done! The books are yet open, and we hope that our citizens will step forward at once

THE NEW ISSUE.

The able, eloquent, and patriotic missionary on down-trodden Pungary still occupies, with his speeches, a large space in the columns of our Eastern exchanges. The question which he preents to our people is gradually taking a more annible form as indeed must needs be referralhough our people are full of enthusiasm, and readily carried away by any novelty, and more especially enthusiastic under the influence of such a master of the heart as Kossuth vet they will

The public mind at the east seems to have so led two points to its satisfaction. One is as to Hungarian cause and the other is as to the propriety of diplomatic intervention by our govern ment in favor of nations struggling for their freedone. With regard to the former, we know of m difference of opinion anywhere. Concerning the latter, there has been a kind of general agreement that some kind of intervention would be desirable and proper, and that the good offices of our govconnect may very properly be extended in all such cases. The difficulty has been that the question has not been distinctly placed before the people whether our intervention should be in the form of a remonstrance, as-" Do not interfere, else we shall look upon it as a riolation of honor and good-fellowship "-or whether it shall be in the form of a threat, as-" If you interfere, we shall de-lare war against you? The question is now taking a more definite form. At the dinner given him by the Bar of New York, Kossern said:

. I confess, should Russia not respect such eclaration of your country, than you are obliged iterally obliged to go to war, or else be prepared o be degraded by mankind from your dignity.— 'es—I confess that would be the case.

And again, in answer to the address of the Whig General Committee, (whose chairman preented him with a purse of $1000). Kossuth, thus closed his stirring speech:

May God give me soon to see the day when America, with her gigantic hand stretched across the occan, will say, to the oppressors in Europe, we want no war; but, when we say step, we wish it to be understood that if matters go turther the people of the United States will redeem its word, support its principle of international law, and show that it is not indifferent or inactive wherever any forter power dues to crush down and show that it is not mannered or maters wherever any forcign power dates to crush dow in any other nation the rising spirit of liberty

Rossuth, then, asks for money, and he will ge t. He asks for some sort of diplomatic interfere nce. It is well, if any interference, sufficiently effectual for Hungary's good, can be made with out leading us into war. He asks us to say to Russia-" You shall not interfere again ." can make no such declaration without disgracing ourselves as a nation, or leading us into an im nensely expensive and exhausting wat-- a war which might drain the resources of the country

We are not ready for any such declaration-

Harbor and River Bill.

Our readers will recollect that the reason given for the failure of appropriations for Western harors and rivers, was that there was not time .-The excuse was the very pootest possible, the real difficulty being the opposition of leading Loco Foco Senators to the bill. Senator Millers, a good whig from New Jersey, has determined that here shall be no excuse this session, and has carly brought the same bill forward in the upper house of Congress. We hope that he will preif to a vote, although it may have an unpleasant effect upon certain Presidential aspirants, who would like to dodge again.

But, supposing the bill to pass the Senate early, what is its chance in the House? Linn Born, the Loco Poco Speaker, himself an opponent of the measure, has thus constituted the committee which will have the charge of it:

Messrs David L. Seymour of N. Y. Andrew Johnson of Tenn, Alex. H. Stephens of Geo, Thos. J. D. Fuller of Me. Jas. H. Duncan of Mass., 12th. Politics of Co. Robbins, Jr. of Pa., Louis St. Martin of Wm. Aiken of S. C., and Thos. Y. Walsh of

It will be seen that there is not a man on the Committee from the States of Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Askunsas, Missouri, or Mississippi, all deeply in erested in the vast internal commerce from which Capital at Washington is in flamer, without hope of its being saved. I had always supposed it a the Government largely derives support, and see, and he has always voted against this measure of justice to the West!

There is one way in which the passage of the hill can be secured. Let its hiends in the Senate take it up, and push it forward, taking the pos ition that it must be passed before any of the appropriation bills which the East and South areso urgent in pressing upon the attention of Congress Let those who have so long refused to do justice to the great West be told, that we will not be tilled with any longer, that we have borne and suffered long enough, and that now we mean to our just rights. Let the friends of the River and Harbor Bitl in both Houses take this ground and maintain it, and the result must be the early sage of the bill. The lives of scancen and travclers on the Western lakes and rivers are as dear to them as are the lives of those who do busiess upon the great waters of the East, and the complary interest of the former is every way equal to that of the latter, and deserve equal consider-

THE "NEW DEAL"-The Kenosha Democre Hunkes, does not at all approve of the contemplated appointment of new delgates to the Na-test: The Madison papers have started the subject of a new election of delegates to Baltimore, on the ground that the appointment of delegates at Madison by the state delegates from the several Congressional districts was contrary to party paperiety. Somebody seems evidently fast for a quarrel. The manner of appointment adopted by the State Convention was entirely in accordance with developing the paper of the contract of the pointment adopted by with democratic precedent in half or more of the States of the Union; and should the issue be made on that question, there can be no doubt of made on that question, there can be no the verdict of the Baltimore Convention

No use, neighbor! The "progressive dete mey" won't stand it, at all, at all.

The gentlemen who have started the ball of agitation" in the Senate begin to the of the spor theady. During the month of December, Kos run and the Compromise monopolized, the time of the Senate. Nothing was done, but a great deal was said. Senator Foort "sayed the Union" several days in seccession, by long speeches in support of his resolution. Nevertheless the esolution "hangs fire," Even the Journal of Comwere has doubts of its policy, the concluding, upon the whole, that this great question can't F ettled^{ri} 160-öften.

Sixsibil. - The Bullalo Commercial says: Mr. Foo'e, of Mississippi, has now a resolution pending in the Senate, which he has widerable to "engineer," without counsel or aid from any quarter. Instead of leaving the dissussion to abler men, like his namesake did, he does all the talking himself. Not a Senator has assisted him, so far as we have observed. Two or three Senators all of his now party here solven outlines all of his now party here solven outlines. tors, all of his own party, have spoken against the resolution, and he makes a speciel in its layor every three he can obtain the floor. No Whig ha-mingled in the debate—a debate as impolitic, unitesmanlike, and fruitless, except of mischief, ha rely taken place in the body.

Poote's sincerity in this compromise-finalit isiness was handsomely tested by Mr. Butler ot long since. The latter asked whether if the people of California should agree to divide that State by the line of 36 30, and thus form a Southern State, the Schator from Mississippi would not vote in favor of it. Foole answeed the he would. So the "finality" is all on one side, according o Mr. Foote's ideas.

SAN HOUSINA AND THE COMPROMISE-Houston, in his answer to Mr. Foote's speech or is inconding resolution in the U.S. Senate, took occasion to utter some very plain truths about the subject matter. He said that, while the Commonise measures had received his support—the pro-subject matter. He soid that, while the Compromise measures had received his support—the protested against any one placing them on the Democratic platform. The convention of the party might do so: but he protested against the pasage of any resolution by Congress other than its legitimate legislation, which was to bind that or any other party. He would not blacken the journal of the Senate by placing there this resolution, or any other which was intended for party, or personal purposes.

Discord now existed in the party. Differences of opinion existed on the subject of internal improverments and upon the tariff. Why should that discord be increased by adding to the platform a resolution upon which the same differences of opinion existed. The platform should not be enlarged without first reconciling differences which already existed. He rould vote for no measure which was he might be inclined more favorably towards it."

Now, doubtless this is all just so, but of what possible interest is this result to Free Trade?—Ancerican Railroad iron must not be made because although the making would give labor to our people and a market to our provisions, still it would not help importing merchants in New York to grow rich. That is the point Free Trade aims at. Then again, suppose the English iron rads wear out faster than ours? Is not that encouraging to Free Trade, by requiring more importation to renew the rules? An interesting experiment with Phillip's Fire Application, took place yesterday morning, just above 51st street, near the proposed new City Park, in the presence of about thirty gentlemen. Pails, in the presence of about thirty gentlemen. A nix about six by twelve feet, had been dug and filled with 500 gallons of Stockholm tarvery inflammable substance. A few wood shavings were scattered over its surface, and when the whole was completely enveloped in flames, making a very hot fire, and throwing off a dense volume of smoke, the Aminilator was brought to volume of smoke, the Adminiator was brought to bear upon it. In a minute and a half, it was altogether extinguished—the gas and vapor issuing from the machine seeming to devoir the flames almost instantly, whenever brought in contract with them. The experiment was regarded as proving the utility of the Annihilator as an extinwing the utility of the Aminiator as an extra quisher of tire in the early stages of its progress. Mr. Phillips briefly addressed the spectators, sa-ting that he has never proposed to do away with the use of water by his machine, but to make the latter auxiliary to the former. He would have it in the possession of overy family, so that in case of fite, it could be speedily put in requisition, before, in ordinary cases, water could be procated. Por localities where water can not be readily obtained, be contended that his invention must prove invaluable.

merce. The following day another experiment took place in Hamilton Square, and here is the result of it: result of it:

ANNIHI, ATON OF THE FIRE ANNIHI, ATON.—General Row, Accident, &c.—Yestenday afternoon, at 1 o'clock, about 3000 persons assembled at Haunilton Square, near Sixty-ninth street, between 3d and the Avenues, for the purpose of witnessing a grand public exhibition of the powers of Phillips' Fire Annihilator. In the centre of this large square had been created a cottage building, constructed of green spruce and pine boards, of about 3-4 of an luch in thickness. This structure was 20 feet in height, making 2 stories, and 20 feet square.—On the north and south side was a wing, each being ten feet wide by 28 feet in length and 12 feet in height. In the second story were six windows,

Owing to the severity of the cold weather, the crowd expressed great uneasiness at the want of punctuality in the experiment; but the delay was consequent upon the difficulty experienced in clearing the building of some thirty or forty over-curious people who had by some means or other gained admittance. The crowd having at length been driven back about twenty feet from the building, the shavings were set on fire, and in a moment almost, the flames had communicated to the planks placed through the hutchway. Lessian half a minute had clapsed, however, after the pile was fleed, before four of the machines were brought to hear upon the flames. The valence were brought to hear upon the flames. The va-por and smoke caused by the turpentine as-shavings so filled the building that it was, impos-sible to enter it. The windows of the first and second stories were smashed in by some of the workmen, and in two minutes thereafter the

The Prec Congregational Church on Mainest, at the Lake House, and a German glove store, on East Watersta, just below Cordes' Brick Block, were the points selected. In each case, the attempt was "No attempt was made to extinguish the fire." We are told that it was the intention of Mi-phillips to give these or four experiments before the editice was fully fired, and that the first fire of shavings was not intended to be anything more than the least of the exhibition.

ing ten feet who by 25 feet in length and 12 feet in height. In the second story were six windows, and in the first story eight windows and five doors, three of which were open to admit of egress and ingress. In the middle of the second story floor was cut a large hatchway or well hole, through which was perpendicularly placed about a dozen wide pine plants, one end of which rested on the control floor. About the bettern of these plants ground floor. About the bottom of these planks was piled a quantity of shavings well saturated with turpentine. Owing to the severity of the cold weather, the second stores were snashed in by some of the workners, and in two minutes, thereafter the crowd poured into the premises, and even upon the roof of the wings on each 'i'de.

So little time had elapsed after the building had been fined and the application of the Annihilator that the planks were scarcely charted. The crowd deeming the test very unsatisfactory, proposed to fire the premises themselves, and give the experimenters a fair chance. An objection being raised to this proposition by the workness, a general fight took place, which, but for the interforence of the 19th Ward Police, would have resulted seriously to some of these engaged in it.

The building was finally fixed by the populace in several places, and before twenty minutes had elapsed, the structure was a mass of ruins. About 450 gallons of tar, which had been brought on the ground for experiment was also set on fire.

The Annihilators were loudly called for, but it appeared they were non est inventus, having abandoned the ground on the building being fired,

No attempt was made to extinguish the five with the Annihilators after the building had been et on the by the crowd.

We am told that it was the intention of Mr suit themselves, we presume they are convinced that the Annihilator is a humbug; but it is quite probable that the public will rather expect a fair experiment. We submit that the persons engaged have been shamefully treated, much to the disgrace of the city.—Tribane.
